Press Release

25 June 2007

Hawkins Watts Ltd sponsors prize in Food Product Development.

Hawkins Watts Ltd announced today the sponsorship of a Food Science award for product development at the University of Auckland.

The Award is to acknowledge the student who achieves the best grade in the University 300 level Food Science Product Development paper.

Hawkins Watts Ltd has agreed to sponsor the award for a minimum of 5 years, with the recipients receiving a trophy and $500.

“We continue to be impressed with the calibre of students from the Food Science program at the University of Auckland” said Paul Harrison, Technical Director at Hawkins Watts Ltd.

“ This is one way that we can show our continued support for Food Science and Technology in New Zealand” he said.

The prize will be administered by the University of Auckland Foundation and will be awarded at the end of the 2007 university year.
